Contact with Racing Control Bodies

As part of the licensing process, the QRIC will liaise with interstate and overseas racing control bodies in all codes of racing to determine whether you have ever been involved in racing in any capacity and your disciplinary history with any bodies that have issued you with a licence. The QRIC will disclose to other racing control bodies the fact that you have made application to the QRIC for a licence and your date of birth and contact details for the purpose of identifying you.

Have you previously been licensed by an Australian or overseas racing control body?

Yes No

Details:

If Yes, please provide all licence details including type, state and dates?

Have you ever had a licence disqualified, revoked, suspended, withdrawn or a licence application refused by any racing authority?

Yes No

Details:

Racing Industry Experience (all codes)

The QRIC collects this information to determine whether you have had the opportunity to develop skills and to receive practical training in caring for racing animals. The QRIC may contact any industry participants who have engaged your services in the past for the purpose of determining whether you possess the knowledge and skills necessary to be a trainer.

Please identify any racing industry experience that you have as well as effective dates.

Please outline any experience you have had with animals

Criminal History

As part of the licensing process, the QRIC requires every applicant to obtain a National Police Certificate (NPC) from their local police station or at an accredited Crimtrac agency (www.crimtrac.gov.au) and attach the original certificate to this application. If you are not an Australian citizen, you may need to obtain a NPC from your country of origin. Any criminal conviction incurred in any country in the world must be disclosed. A prior criminal history does not prevent a person from obtaining a licence, but any prior convictions are taken into account when deciding whether an applicant is a fit and proper person to be involved in racing in Queensland. This information may be disclosed to control body personnel and government authorities.

“conviction” of an offence means being found guilty of an offence, on a plea of guilty or otherwise, whether or not a conviction is recorded.

1. Do you understand that if you are charged with an offence under Australian Law that you must notify the QRIC within 14 days?	<input type="checkbox"/> Yes By ticking yes, you acknowledge your understanding of this requirement.

Statutory Declaration

I, do solemnly and sincerely declare:

1. I acknowledge information set out in paragraphs 2-14 below form the general terms and conditions of my licence.
2. I have read the Standards of the QRIC approved under the Racing Integrity Act 2016 (RIA), and published on the QRIC's website at www.qric.qld.gov.au, and I agree to be bound by these Standards.
3. I will abide by the RIA, Racing Act 2002 (RA) and the Rules of Racing and any lawful direction issued by a steward or authorised officer of the QRIC.
4. I will continually update myself in relation to recent rule changes to the Rules of Racing that are published on the Racing Queensland website: www.racingqueensland.com.au.
5. I understand that disciplinary action may be taken against me, including revocation of my licence, if I do not abide by the RIA, RA, Standards of the QRIC, the Rules of Racing or a lawful direction issued by a steward or authorised officer of the QRIC.
6. I am aware that the QRIC collates personal information relating to me as part of the process of retaining records of all persons licensed by the QRIC. I consent to the QRIC disclosing and requesting personal information concerning my affairs as a licensee to/from:
 - a. Authorised employees and agents of the QRIC;
 - b. Other State and Commonwealth departments and agencies;
 - c. Racing Queensland or Principal Racing Authorities in other states and territories in Australia and elsewhere;
 - d. Your public liability insurer and any agent acting on behalf of your insurer;
 - e. An owner or licensee of a venue at which betting on a code of races is conducted;
 - f. WorkCover and providers of insurance in the racing industry.
7. I understand that the QRIC may investigate me for non-compliances under racing legislation. I acknowledge and agree that the QRIC may publish reports on its findings after any investigation on its website where the report, and a summary of it containing my name, will be available publicly. I consent to the disclosure of my personal information by the QRIC for this purpose and this consent continues after the expiry or termination of any licence held by me under racing legislation.
8. I understand that I am required to notify the QRIC in detail within 14 days of being charged with an offence in Queensland or any other state or territory.
9. I understand that the QRIC may immediately suspend my licence if I fail to pay a debt owed to the Commission within 30 days or such other period of time as agreed between the Commission and the licence holder.
10. I am aware and understand that it is an offence under section 214 of the RIA for me to knowingly make a false statement in an application for a licence. Subject to a maximum penalty of 200 penalty units or 2 years' imprisonment.
